EVERY OCCASION SHOULD BE SPECIAL

Blythswood Square is one of Glasgow's most iconic buildings, which has been lovingly transformed by The Town House Collection into a breathtakingly luxurious five star hotel that captures the beauty, glamour and elegance of years gone by. Venture inside and you'd be forgiven for thinking that you had stepped back in time.

Maintaining firm links to the historical past of Blythswood Square, the private dining and events suites are the most stylish areas to hire for your corporate conference, meeting or private party in Glasgow.

It's not just the venue that is superior. Whether planning a private get-together, luxurious product launch or star-studded drinks party, a high-powered meeting or a low-key working lunch, our expert events team will be there from the very start to guarantee seamless service and a perfect reception.

TABLE FOR 52?

Blythswood Square may well be one of Glasgow's best-known historic landmarks, but the Monte Carlo Suites, our breathtakingly beautiful, oak-panelled events spaces, are far from old-fashioned. From bespoke private dining menus and a range of flexible room layouts, to the state of the art Audio Visual technology and the delightful wooden floor, this is hospitality at the cutting edge.

We've even commissioned a custom-designed 52 seater meeting table for those all-important round table discussions (or dinners!).

"In style and presentation, our food has one foot in the past and one in the future. We have recreated some of the great classic dishes while embracing some more contemporary techniques and styles. The menu features a strong seasonal focus with an eye on top quality Scottish meats, sustainable fish, Scottish shellfish and organic fruit and vegetables."

HANS RISSMANN, MANAGING DIRECTOR

TIE THE KNOT IN MONTE CARLO,
CELEBRATE IN GLASGOW.

With natural wooden floors, rich wood panelling and luxurious fabrics, the Monte Carlo Suites make for a wonderfully atmospheric and intimate wedding location, accommodating up to 80 guests for the wedding breakfast and a further 40 for evening receptions. Following the ceremony itself, your nearest and dearest can enjoy a sparkling reception (complete with champagne of course) in the elegant surroundings of The Salon, or, if you'd rather, in the delightful gardens of Blythswood Square itself – where a marquee can be arranged for al fresco drinks.

And when it comes to those little things that make your big day all the more memorable – whether this be a harpist, bespoke table settings or just the right colour of flowers – our dedicated events team will be there to help from the moment you say 'yes' until you head off into the sunset...

THE START OF SOMETHING SPECIAL...

At Blythswood Square, we know how to get the party started in style. So much so that in 1955 the venue, then the home of the Royal Scottish Automobile Club, was one of eight official points of departure for the Monte Carlo Rally, a glamorous and exciting trans-European motoring event which at the time was open to all those daring enough to take part.

These days we are admittedly a little more Manolo Blahnik than Maserati, however in honour of the building's illustrious heritage, the Royal Scottish Automobile Club's Rally Bar has been restored to its former glory – using the original wood panelled walls and fireplace, no less. Available for private hire, The Rally Bar complements the chic Monte Carlo Suites for larger parties, and is perfectly suited to cocktail masterclasses, champagne tastings and refined sporting celebrations.

PICTURE PERFECT

If, like us, you have fond memories going to the movies in an age before generic multiplexes, then you'll love the Screening Room, our unique 40 seat cinema. Available for private hire, the Screening Room is well-suited to film screenings, product launches and corporate presentations. Order a cocktail, settle back in the plush seats – each one finished in a custom Harris Tweed fabric – and enjoy the show...

IT'S ALL IN THE DETAILS.

From the bespoke Harris Tweed furnishings in The Salon to the seasonally chosen, locally-sourced produce in the Restaurant, at Blythswood Square we like to focus on the finer points. The same can be said for our events team, who are more than happy to tailor packages to suit your every need, from outside catering to bespoke entertainment – just ask.

Whether the occasion be a business conference for 100 or a private party for your nearest and dearest, our flexible room layouts and cutting edge facilities make Blythswood Square the perfect venue. For more information please contact a member of our events team.
