

Have The Time of your Life..... Dirty Dancing at Blythswood Square!

Dirty Dancing is going nationwide. To celebrate Blythswood Square has teamed up with the King's Theatre Glasgow to combine a luxury 5* experience with a visit to see this unprecedented live experience which explodes with heart pounding music, passionate romance and sensationally sexy dancing.

Situated in the heart of Glasgow, Blythswood Square is the perfect destination to combine a city/theatre break. The hotel boasts 100 bedrooms including four spacious suites and an enticing top floor penthouse. It also houses Glasgow's first luxury spa which offers indigenous Scottish treatments, blending the potency and power of organic raw ingredients from Scotland with an advanced bio-scientific approach to skincare.

The package available from 19th October – 12th November 2011 is the ultimate break for lovers of Dirty Dancing or those who have yet to fall for the charms of Baby and co.

The Dirty Dancing Break includes:

- Two tickets for two to see Dirty Dancing at the King's Theatre, Glasgow
- Two night's accommodation for two sharing a Classic Room at Blythswood Square
- A full Scottish breakfast each morning
- A three course meal on one night from the Market Menu

Price: From £510 (for two sharing a room subject to availability)

The beautifully decorated Classic bedrooms with bespoke marble bathrooms and Egyptian cotton linen, the luxurious and sophisticated spa with its thermal experiences the culinary delights of the market menu and a visit to see Dirty Dancing, one of the most "Spectacular" (Financial Times) and "Magnificent" (Mail on Sunday) shows will combine to make a truly unforgettable weekend which is guaranteed to lift the spirits.

Talking of spirits the Bar at Blythswood Square is a must, Head Bartender Mal Spence, an imaginative mixologist, will be delighted to serve you the perfect pre or post (or even both!) theatre drink - from vintage classics such as the Daisy and the New York Sour to timeless favourites such as the Mojito and the French Martini.

- Ends-