

Father's Day Relaxation at Blythswood Square

According to The Good Spa Guide, what men like is classy but understated treatments that are E.A.S.Y; that's Effective, Active, Sensuous and Youthful. In Glasgow, you don't get classier than the luxury spa at the city's only AA 5 star hotel, Blythswood Square.

This Father's Day, what better way to treat your dad than a trip to Blythswood Square set in the former RAC building. Whether he suffers from aches and pains or could simply do with some relaxation, the spacious spa at Blythswood Square offers a wide range of treatments and spa experiences that will leave dads feeling a whole lot better.

Whilst Blythswood Square treatments are perfect for both men and women, the spa has created two results oriented treatments for men concentrating on releasing stress, tension and targeting aches and pains.
